Sen. Laura Toy responds to actions of Detroit City Council on water rates

LANSING – In response to the Detroit City Council’s actions rejecting rate increases for Detroit residents, while approving hikes for suburban customers, state Sen. Laura M. Toy, 6th District, made the following statement:

“The Detroit City Council is elected to serve the residents of Detroit and that’s just what they did. Perhaps now the governor could sign Senate Bill 372 so that the other 3 million customers served by the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department can have some accountability as well.

“This is exactly why the Senate has already passed my legislation. We must bring fairness and accountability to this system for all the residents it serves in the region.”
